DCI WEEKLY REPORT
PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICEExecutive Appearances

In the past two weeks both the DCI and the DDCI have spoken to groups in New York, Dallas and Phoenix, and have met with enthusiasm and support from the attendees. According to reports from the host groups, the public events attracted record-breaking attendance.

The Director spoke to 40 chief executive officers who are members of the Policy Committee of the Business Roundtable in New York. The members remarked that the Director comes across as very impressive and a "seriously straight shooter with principles."

Some 330 attended the Phoenix Rotary Club luncheon on Friday, 15 January. Attendees remarked that the Director's speech "was very good and what he had to say was reassuring."

During his 18-20 January trip to Dallas, the DDCI addressed a joint luncheon of 200 of The Dallas Assembly, Charter 100 and Atlantic Council. The Dallas Assembly reported that it was necessary to cut off the question and answer period or it would have continued all afternoon. In addition the DDCI spoke at an evening meeting of the Dallas Council on Foreign Affairs which was followed by an off-the-record dinner. Over 350 people attended the Dallas Council on Foreign Affairs meeting and according to the host group "Dallas really likes him." The speech was very favorably received, many good comments followed and the Dallas Council requested permission to print it. The dinner was attended by an over capacity crowd of 60. The DDCI also spoke to a breakfast meeting of presidents and/or CEOs of leading Dallas companies, including Dallas Cowboys' owner Bum Bright.

Public Relations Unit

After discussion with the University of Michigan's Dean of the School of Public Policy, Hulnick decided to postpone his visit there because students planned to shut down the scheduled luncheon and presentation. Since students in the program are eager to have an Agency speaker, the presentation will be rescheduled later in the year.
